Persuasive Essays In Spanish:

Latino Language and Literacy in Ethnolinguistic Chicago Marcia Farr, 2005-01-03 This volume along with its companion Ethnolinguistic Chicago Language and Literacy in the City's Neighborhoods fills an important gap in research on Chicago and more generally on language use in globalized metropolitan areas Often cited as a quintessential American city Chicago is and always has been a city of immigrants It is one of the most linguistically diverse cities in the United States and home to one of the largest and most diverse Latino communities Although language is unquestionably central to social identity and Chicago has been well studied by scholars interested in ethnicity until now no one has focused as do the contributors to these volumes on the related issues of language and ethnicity Latino Language and Literacy in Ethnolinguistic Chicago includes ethnographic studies based in home settings that focus on ways of speaking and literacy practices studies that explore oral language use and literacy practices in school contexts and studies based in community spaces in various neighborhoods It offers a rich set of portraits emphasizing language use as centrally related to ethnic class or gender identities As such it is relevant for anthropologists sociologists linguists historians educators and educational researchers and others whose concerns require an understanding of ground level phenomena relevant to contemporary social issues and as a text for courses in these areas

"¡Pero Ya Sé Español!" Laura Elizabeth Sharp, 2009 Research Question s How does scaffolding of in class debates and peer evaluations improve students academic persuasive writing How did students express self efficacy about writing in English and Spanish over the course of the study Research Activities Context This inquiry targeted the needs of my Spanish Language AP class which consisted of twelve seniors and two juniors Seven students were classified as English Language Learners and another five students have been re designated All of my students were considered to be native heritage speakers of Spanish Instructional Approach The inquiry lasted four weeks and was divided into two equal phases The first phase was completed prior to winter vacation in December the second phase was completed in January Students prepared for and participated in debates as a means of showing them how an effective argument is created The debates targeted two issues the drug trafficking problem in Mexico and the controversy surrounding immigration and amnesty Students then participated in scaffolded activities to explore how to write argumentative essays These activities included class analysis of argument structure in their peers essays the use of graphic organizers and structured peer editing workshops Data Gathering Data collection included a baseline and outcome quick write the first drafts and the final essays turned in by the students as the primary achievement data Students also completed surveys which asked them to specify their degree of confidence while writing in English and Spanish Finally observations were taken during student work days in preparation for the debate and peer editing workshops The observation data were behavior notes taken every 10 minutes examining a student's level of engagement on the task at hand Findings and Conclusions Comparisons of the baseline and outcome data indicate that the majority of students had a much better understanding of the structure and content of an argumentative essay after the intervention The majority of students 54% wrote more in the outcome data essays than in the baseline data essays Furthermore 85% of students included some sort of representation of the other side in their second essay A rebuttal is a key component of an effective argument which zero students included on their first essay The findings of the intervention achievement data suggests that scaffolding peer editing and revising stabilize and standardize the essays turned in For example although 42% of students wrote less in regards to the number of paragraphs 75% of students still expressed the same number of ideas typically three for a standard five paragraph essay Confidence results indicated that the percentage of students who rated their confidence levels as high while writing a persuasive essay in Spanish grew throughout the course of the study 43% rated their confidence levels as high prior to the intervention 60% half way through the intervention and 64% after the intervention Grade Level Grades 11 and 12 Data Collection Methods Student writing student survey observation field notes Project Descriptors Argumentative persuasive writing debate native Spanish speakers
