their job. It encompasses various factors such as fulfillment, contentment, and a sense of accomplishment derived from the tasks and responsibilities associated with the job. Job satisfaction is influenced by a combination of intrinsic and extrinsic factors, including the nature of the work, relationships with colleagues, compensation, and opportunities for professional growth.

3.2 What can the management of the supermarket expect if their staff experience job satisfaction, as well as a positive feeling in the workplace?

If staff members experience job satisfaction and a positive feeling in the workplace, the management can expect several positive outcomes. These may include:

- Increased Productivity: Satisfied employees are likely to be more motivated and engaged, leading to higher levels of productivity.
- Improved Employee Retention: Job satisfaction contributes to employee loyalty, reducing turnover and the costs associated with recruitment and training.
- Enhanced Employee Well-being: Satisfied employees are generally happier, which can positively impact their overall well-being and health.
- Positive Organisational Culture: A satisfied workforce contributes to a positive organisational culture, fostering collaboration, innovation, and a harmonious work environment.
- Customer Satisfaction: Satisfied employees are more likely to provide better customer service, leading to increased customer satisfaction.

3.3 Explain EXHIB factors influencing the level of job satisfaction.

Work Environment: The physical and social surroundings in which employees work can significantly impact their satisfaction.
