Award-winning books for children and young adults

Betty L. Criscoe,1990 Core Collection for Children and Young Adults Rachel E. Schwedt,Janice DeLong,2008-09-11 With thousands of new volumes lining the shelves of bookstores abundant advertisements and innumerable online reviews it is becoming increasingly difficult for the concerned adult to recommend literature that is of quality yet speaks to young audiences. Core Collection for Children and Young Adults presents the best in contemporary and classic literature for children and young adults. Every book listed in this reference has a concisely worded annotation which is followed by headings designating awards the book has won related subjects and character themes. With more than 350 titles reviewed this resource will prove invaluable for teachers librarians parents collectors of children's books and college students with an interest in juvenile literature education or child growth and development

Picturing Canada Gail Edwards,Judith Saltman,2014-07-31

The study of children's illustrated books is located within the broad histories of print culture publishing the book trade and concepts of childhood. An interdisciplinary history Picturing Canada provides a critical understanding of the changing geographical historical and cultural aspects of Canadian identity as seen through the lens of children's publishing over two centuries. Gail Edwards and Judith Saltman illuminate the connection between children's publishing and Canadian nationalism analyse the gendered history of children's librarianship identify changes and continuities in narrative themes and artistic styles and explore recent changes in the creation and consumption of children's illustrated books. Over 130 interviews with Canadian authors illustrators editors librarians booksellers critics and other contributors to Canadian children's book publishing document the experiences of those who worked in the industry. An important and wholly original work Picturing Canada is fundamental to our understanding of publishing history and the history of childhood itself in Canada

Crossing Boundaries with Children's Books Doris Gebel,United States Board on Books for Young

People,2006-05-25 This annotated bibliography organized geographically by world region and country describing nearly 700 books representing 73 countries is a valuable resource for librarians teachers and anyone else seeking to promote international understanding through children's literature. It is the third volume sponsored by the United States Board on Books for Young People. The first Carl M Tomlinson's Children's Books from Other Countries 1998 is a compendium of international children's literature with annotations of both in and out of print books published between 1950 and 1996. Susan

Stan's The World Through Children's Books 2002 was the second and it included books published between the years 1997 and 2000 Crossing Boundaries includes international children's books published between 2000 and 2004 as well as selected American books set in countries other than the United States Editor Doris Gebel has compiled an important tool for providing stories that will help children understand our differences while simultaneously demonstrating our common humanity
