Saigon Klaus H. Carl, 2002 Saigon is the city of the yellow anguish a languidness that possessed the french and american Europeans that lived in Vietnam At night in front of a drink the memories of flowery young girls in their traditional costumes surrounded by the thick smells of the ngoc man cooking the feverish sounds of the city's motion piercing through the humid heat of the Asian nights hauntingly reappear A city of contrasts Saigon has lived through dramatic changes the turbulence of the South for which it was renowned was replaced by the terrible coldness of the North and the joyfulness of the city was imposed a rigid doctrine Saigon became Ho Chi Minh and a new city was created But although appearances may change people remain the same So what came of those changes A few red flags and a number of Japanese motorbikes

Luxury and Rubble Erik Harms, 2020-10-09 Luxury and Rubble is the tale of two cities in Ho Chi Minh City It is the story of two planned mixed use residential and commercial developments that are changing the face of Vietnam's largest city Since the early 1990s such developments have been steadily reorganizing urban landscapes across the country. For many Vietnamese they are a symbol of the country's emergence into global modernity and of post socialist economic reforms. However they are also sites of great contestation, sparking land disputes and controversies over how to compensate evicted residents. In this penetrating ethnography Erik Harms vividly portrays the human costs of urban reorganization as he explores the complex and sometimes contradictory experiences of individuals grappling with the forces of privatization in a socialist country.
