Salih Tayeb Season Of Migration To The North:

Season of Migration to the North Tayeb Salih, 2009-04-14 After years of study in Europe the young narrator of Season of Migration to the North returns to his village along the Nile in the Sudan. It is the 1960s and he is eager to make a contribution to the new postcolonial life of his country. Back home he discovers a stranger among the familiar faces of childhood the enigmatic Mustafa Sa'eed. Mustafa takes the young man into his confidence telling him the story of his own years in London of his brilliant career as an economist and of the series of fraught and deadly relationships with European women that led to a terrible public reckoning and his return to his native land. But what is the meaning of Mustafa's shocking confession? Mustafa disappears without explanation leaving the young man whom he has asked to look after his wife in an unsettled and violent no man's land between Europe and Africa tradition and innovation, holiness and defilement and man and woman from which no one will escape unaltered or unharmed. Season of Migration to the North is a rich and sensual work of deep honesty and incandescent lyricism. In 2001 it was selected by a panel of Arab writers and critics as the most important Arab novel of the twentieth century.

The scholars in this collection illustrate how the writing back paradigm engages in a conversation and paves the way for a dialogical and pluri-versal world where the Rest is no longer excluded. Among the important features of this book is that it presents ways for decoloniality and epistemic disobedience. This book will be of interest to scholars and students of all Social Science and Humanities disciplines but it is particularly important for those in the disciplines of sociology postcolonial
