What is a Child Support agreement?

A child support agreement is a written agreement between parents (and/or a non-parent carer if applicable) on the amount of child support to be paid and how it will be paid. An agreement must be in writing and signed by all parties.

There are two types of agreements: limited and binding.

- Limited child support agreements can be accepted if there is a child support assessment in place and the annual rate payable under the agreement is equal to, or more than, the annual rate of child support payable under the child support assessment. You are not required to get legal advice before entering into a limited agreement, however, you can choose to do so.
- Binding child support agreements can be made and accepted even if a child support assessment has not been made. The agreement can be made for any amount that all parties agree to. Each party must obtain independent legal advice before entering into the agreement and attach a certificate that is completed and signed by each party and their legal practitioner.

Refer to the notes on page 3 for further information.

IMPORTANT: If you are considering signing an agreement, it is important that you understand what you are signing. If you are unsure about anything in the agreement, you should get independent legal advice. You can learn more about agreements in the Child Support Guide at guides.dss.gov.au
